

2019 Armidale & New England Show Society Showgirl Competition

The showgirl movement provides opportunities for young women to become involved in their local communities as rural ambassadors.

If you are lucky enough to become a local showgirl, a zone finalist or even the Royal Sydney Show finalist or winner, you will be amazed at the personal and professional opportunities that the Showgirl Competition can open up for you.

Why become an entrant in the showgirl competition?

The answer is simple...

Young women have known for years that Local Shows are the most direct form of self-promotion and the best medium for expanding their career and personal ambitions.

As a showgirl entrant, you can benefit in the following ways:

Entrants:

- A chance to win a variety in amazing prizes
- Meet likeminded women and make lifelong friends and connections
- Increase your exposure to the wider community
- Increase awareness of your local show and community
- Meet with local community leaders
- Have an opportunity to present yourself to a judge and interview panel
- Networking

For our local show:

- You will assist in the organisation and promotion of the 2019 Armidale & New England Show
- You will assist in expanding and improving the Armidale & New England Show
- You will assist in promoting "special events" for the Armidale & New England Show

Showgirl:

- You will become the “face of the show” and show ambassador
- Maximise your self esteem
- Meet new prospective personal and professional contacts
- Participate with the promotion and expansion of the showgirl movement
- Promote yourself, your local community or interest group
- Meet with community leaders
- Promote your local show
- Networking and travel opportunities
- You will become an “honorary” member of the Armidale & New England Show committee for the following 12 months

The Showgirl movement in NSW is a time honoured and respected competition, and today over 1000 young women enter the competition through their local shows annually.
